Celebrate and Debrief Shocker Showcase Jennifer Sweet	It was a successful event. There were over 200 families. The school was able to highlight all the wonderful opportunities at SCMS. PTA huge thank you! Notes for next year: open the MAP, maybe in front. "Purple brick road" arrows on the ground. where the art was displayed, that is where the path got a little confusing on the path, but needs to be in a respected space to protect the art. Possibly add "open house" to promotion advertisement Parents have a "cheat sheet" for questions like: how many enrolled Photos: Ms. George has a folder of pictures for links to photos and for families who filled out the survey the name will be drawn for a prize. Clear communication to students about where they can get their food. There is food in the student lounge for the students who were volunteering. The food in cafeteria is for visiting families. Be sure volunteer students know where they can get food throughout the evening.
Quarter 3 Title IX Update Kim Young	*4 cases reported and investigated to date this school year; All involved verbal harassment (inappropriate comments) *FYI on Process - When Title IX allegation is made, "supportive measures" are offered. Parents receive a "Pre-Investigative Supportive Measures Letter" form.
PTO Report Janelle Davis	The PTA spent under 1200 for the Shocker Showcase. Hospitality meeting: incidents of missing snacks and drinks. PTO general board meeting on Jan 31 virtual. Wellness checks with co chairs on the PTO to be sure everyone is on the same page. Dance May 3: 8th grade teachers voted time of dance from 5-7. Parents are wondering if this is enough time to set up, get kids home and back. Mrs. Bales is following up. PTO offered to buy
