

Ready, Set, Kindergarten!

Starting kindergarten is a big step, and you obviously want your girl to feel as comfortable and confident as possible from day one. Get ready for kindergarten in our free, four part series aimed to help your girl feel ready for this awesome next step!

This online and interactive kindergarten readiness course is designed to help all girls prepare for the new friends, new responsibilities, and big changes that elementary school will bring. Let Girl Scouts help you support and inspire her as you both prepare for this milestone.
