

Cell Phones & Electronics

Cell phones, electronic devices and accessories must be turned off, while scholars are on campus during school hours.

“I see it. I hear it. I take it.”

Guidelines (Per class block/per quarter):

- First infraction: phone/device is taken and turned into the main office for parent pick up
- Second infraction: phone/device is taken and turned into the main office for parent pick up with ASD assigned
- Third infraction: phone/device is taken and turned into the main office for parent pick up with ASD assigned
- Fourth infraction: phone/device is taken and turned into the main office for parent pick up with ISS assigned

Electronic devices include but are not limited to: iPads, cameras, headphones, earbuds, etc. If approval was not given, items will be taken, and the above guidelines will be followed. Administration reserves that right to monitor the use of iWatches and other devices not identified above.

Chromebooks:

- Scholars must adhere to the CMS Acceptable Use Policy.
- Chromebooks are the property of CMS. If misused in any way the privilege to use school technology and access to the internet will be revoked for a length of time determined by staff.
- Repeated misuse of Chromebooks will be treated as a minor or major offense in accordance with the CMS Student Code of Conduct Handbook.

If the scholar vandalizes or is in violation of the CMS Acceptable Use Policy, the scholar will lose the privilege to use school technology for the remainder of the school year.
