Request for Early Release 2021-2022

Early Release is an option for students who meet the following criteria:

- Senior who is on track to graduate in June of 2022.
- Junior who is enrolled in the CPCC Career and College Promise Program.
- Student must be enrolled in at least two courses at Providence each semester.
- Student remains in good standing with Providence High School (to include keeping his/her grades up and avoiding discipline infractions).
- Student agrees to leave campus at the beginning of Early Release (may attend their assigned lunch) and remain off campus until the end of the school day.

We will do our best to honor an early release request made during the time of registration however, we will not rearrange a schedule to fit a request for Early Release after last chance day March 24, 2021. The schedule will be created, and if the course a student receives is not a required course for graduation; the student may drop the course for Early Release. The final schedule (including Early Release) will be available in August.

We encourage all seniors to take a full schedule but understand that some students have all the credits they need to graduate, are interested in volunteering in their prospective career field, are interested in fulfilling an academic internship, or would like to work a part-time job.

We recommend that students check with their prospective colleges and universities to ensure that having Early Release would not adversely impact the chances of admission.

In addition, not taking a full load of classes can impact athletic eligibility. Students who intend to try out for athletics or club sports are required to take 3 classes per semester. They should also discuss this with the Athletic Director.
