If you're looking for a fun, creative and musical experience for your child this summer, come join us for an amazing week of Show Choir Camp!

Carolina Voices, one of Charlotte's oldest and most established arts organizations, is launching a new kid's choral experience in summer 2011. Carolina Kids' Voices will offer children the opportunity to learn music, choreography, staging and design which culminates in an amazing performance at the end of each camp week. Open to rising 1st through rising 5th graders, camp sessions will each have a specific theme allowing your child to attend one, two or all three of the different sessions for a completely unique musical experience. Show Choir Camp is a great place to help children build their self-confidence, self-esteem and other important life skills through music, movement, arts and crafts. Your child will be given a chance to shine and that can be life-changing!

Best known for its annual production of The Singing Christmas Tree, Carolina Voices has been a creative force in the Charlotte arts community for more than 56 years.

Meet our Camp Director – Erica McGee!

Carolina Kids' Voices is a joint collaboration between Erica McGee and Carolina Voices. A Teaching Artist/Vocalist/Actress/Writer/Producer, Erica's professional stage experience is extensive. She has performed throughout the southeast as Patsy Cline in "A Closer Walk with Patsy Cline", "Smokey Joe's Café" and "Decade Diva" and appeared at such venues as Western Carolina University, Halifax University, The Cole Center at Richmond Community College, Lees McRae University, The Tennessee Theatre and the Pinehurst Resort. Erica has worked with many of the area's arts organizations, including Carolina Voices, Actor's Theatre of Charlotte, Charlotte Rep, Charlotte Children's Theater and the Blumenthal Performing Arts Educational Institute. She recently completed writing the music for and performing in "GRITS: The Musical" which has toured throughout the southeast for the past two years. Last December, she premiered a holiday companion piece, "Cinnamon GRITS: Christmas in the South" here in Charlotte which toured in Tennessee and Alabama. Carolina Voices is thrilled to have Erica McGee on board as we bring Carolina Kids' Voices to our community.
